4. Approval of Old Minutes (4/15/13): Commissioner Torres moved this agenda item with the additions and changes and Commissioner Beltran seconded. Minutes were approved.

5. Public Comments: There were no public comments.

6. Community Engagement Event-Presentation:

a. PowerPoint Presentation: Commissioner Pina did a fantastic job making the presentation for the community engagement event on June 1, 2013 from 9:00 am to 1:30pm.

b. Group Discussion Speakers- Topics: As a commission, we were trying to discuss different ideas we can present during the Community Engagement Event. We brainstormed and discussed the ideas of talking about city wide projects, field trips we have attended, why we joined the youth commission, the I <3 Hayward campaign, and how we are trying to use social media more. Also, we thought we could discuss how we also support the Keep Hayward Clean and Green Task Force, and how we support our community by doing a Youth Summit.

7. City Wide Projects: Mr. Maine asked if we would have a party for the elementary students with healthy food snacks for the last day working with the YEP program on May 13, 2013. Also, we followed up on the Glassbrook principal asking us to talk to the sixth grade class any day after May 15th. We said that we would still think about this, and figure out how to arrange this.

8. Commissioner Recruitment for 2013-2014: As youth commissioners, we said that we will spread the word about the youth commission application that is due May 16, 2013, and that we would try to recruit two people we knew to apply for the youth commission.

9. Green Task Force Update: There was no update.

10. Announcements:

a. Ms. Espinosa was discussing and sharing the YEP programs during Summer at Hayward Adult School.

b. Commissioner Castro shared that he went to the job fair, and it was a very successful event.

c. Commissioner Melgoza shared our second annual Puente Walk-a-thon at the Hayward High track on May 18th from 10am-2pm.

d. Commissioner Faraj wanted to say good luck for those taking the AP exams and also that the Hayward High School band will be performing in Disneyland and Disney California Adventures.

e. Ms. Hathaway shared that if we want anything posted at the library that it is a community event, we can always send it to her and she will post it,

f. Mr. Maine said that any active children, who enjoy music, arts, and dance, can be involved in an activity that HARD is planning next May.
