RE: Resignation

Dear David,

After considerable thought, I regret to inform you that I will resign my position as Commissioner effective November 1, 2006 due to personal matters that I must attend to.

My years of service as a Commissioner have provided an opportunity of a lifetime to contribute and service the Hayward community. In addition, I will forever be grateful for the interaction, learning, insights and assistance from every staff member and Commissioner on the "Health and Human Services Commission." I have made many friends and will always treasure this opportunity and experience provided to me from each and every person that serves on this Commission.

Thank you in advance for your acceptance, understanding and many years of support.

Sincerely,
Christopher Parker
