Grow Your Business Online!

Join us for the Small Business Summit presented by the City of Hayward at the Stonebrae Classic.

You are cordially invited to attend the Web.com Small Business Summit presented by the City of Hayward at the Stonebrae Classic. Web.com, in association with SCORE, America's SBDC (Small Business Development Center) and the PGA TOUR, Allstate and Bank of America has identified you as a key local business owner to attend the event free of charge. Along with our presentation of on-line marketing solutions, we are pleased to announce that Allstate Business Insurance, a Summit content partner with Web.com, will have a presentation and demo a free app to help protect your business assets. Bank of America, an industry leader in providing financial solutions to small businesses like yours, will have a guest speaker to discuss the "importance of cash flow management for your business." Registration and complimentary refreshments will begin at 8:30am.
